1. A great many hours of the week have been spent in channeling trainees from the last UTG/A Russian course (completed 21 September) into their proper niches, in getting the next group (24 September - 16 November) ready for their course, and in checking on clearances and assignments for the UTG/A General ending 28 September.

2. This week ^{marks} the end of another clerical refresher course at Alcott.

3. A picture of training registrations for the month and of totals for our entire period of operation follows:
